From the Seneschal

Happy New Year unto the Shire of Rosenfeld!

The New Year brings many new opportunities to serve your shire and Kingdom. Please take the time to find ways in which you may make a difference.

Please join me in thanking and congratulating Milady Ghilean on her impending warranting as our newest Hospitaler. It will be a great asset to have someone who can focus on newcomers ...making them feel welcomed and assisting them in finding their niche within our organization. Vivat Ghilean!!

Congratulations to HL Amalric and HE Tostig on being our next Event Stewards for our new and improved event. We are still ironing out dates on the calendar since the new calendar scheduling rules went into effect. We are continuing our quest to move our event as far away from BAM as possible without finding ourselves in the heat of early Fall. At our next meeting, we need to name our event so that the name reflects our focus on our melee team theme. So, please bring your suggestions. Remember to give it some serious thought as the name will carry forward each year. Feel free to post your suggestions on the list so that others may consider it prior to the meeting.

As of this date, I have not received word as to who will follow me as Seneschal of Rosenfeld. I have been most honored to have had the opportunity to serve you in this capacity. Know that I will continue to support Rosenfeld as school and time allows.

Joy and Prosperity to All!

Julia

From the Exchequer

Greetings!

The office of the Treasurer is in good shape for the coming year. Our coffers are full and have allowed us to be generous to our Kingdom.

The yearly report is due this month and will be turned in with the monthly report.

May the best of this new year's joys be yours!

In most humble service,

Sarah

From the Minister of Arts & Sciences

Hale and Hearty Greetings from your MoAS!

We did begin this month with the most astounding Yule Revel. There were so many fun activities that I did not get to do everything. The period recipe amusement was most excellent. I cannot wait to get the recipes (we are each to post them in the Thorny Truth each month) as every one was delectable-figuring out the recipes was also neat. The silk fan painting was brilliant...Lady Sarah is an admirable teacher-knowledgeable and patient...thank-you for your kindness in having this class for us.

I did observe the gaming through the day and am delighted to hear that Milady Ghilean learned Pente as I want to play with her (let's talk about playing some populace day-yes?). The feast was impressive scrupulous and indicative of the richness of Rosenfeld's good gentles. Being regaled with tales of honor and love – stories of our heroes- was a stellar idea and added depth to our understanding of one another and valuable teachers in our lives.

The highlight of the festival, in my humble opinion, was Mistress Rhiannon's performance of Middle Eastern Dance in beautiful garb and her breath-taking dance was exquisite. Lord Ricciardo and Honorable Lady Carletta did win best table with a heart-warming story of their Italian hospitality (and their characteristic gorgeous settings), which if you do know them – the story is genuine and true and best dressing honors went to Mistress Rhiannon for her stunning dance outfit.

The celebration exemplified the spirit of the holiday and brotherhood of society and I for one feel fortune to have been there. Thank-you to everyone who planned and implement the escapades-it did you credit!

January our sewing guild plans to meet before populace with a banner making theme so do begin thinking of what banner patterns you may wish to construct, and watch for more postings soon about materials and so forth.

Praying we all see miracles unfold.....Lady Emma Farewyll, Rosenfeld MoAS
